

Poles Quit Kiev Region as Red Forces Pour In

Bolshevik. However, encountered difficulties in crossing Dnieper After Bridges Were Destroyed

Heavy Fighting Reported

Warsaw Says 1,000 of Enemy Were Annihilated and Hundreds Drowned

WARSAW, June 14.—The Bolsheviks are pouring into the Kiev region, backed by the greatest number of divisions the Poles have ever faced, according to reports received here. The Poles are withdrawing their main forces.

The Bolsheviks are entering the Kiev district from the south, through territory first overrun by the cavalry of general Budenny. Opposite Kiev the Bolsheviks have encountered difficulties in crossing the Dnieper, owing mainly to the fact that the bridges had been destroyed by the Poles.

Heavy fighting is reported at various points in the region, the Poles giving up ground only where they are outnumbered.

The Bolsheviks launched an attack in Polesia, designed to aid the Soviet forces to cross the Dnieper in the region near the mouth of the Pripiet, in the Kiev drive. The enemy lost severely while trying to break the Polish front near Glibow. One thousand Bolsheviks, under cover of artillery fire, reached the right bank of the Dnieper, but were cut off and annihilated. Two hundred were made prisoner and many were drowned.

There is intense activity in the region of Lake Sicho and to the northward.

800 Bolsheviks Drowned

Several battalions of Bolsheviks crossed the Dnieper near Glibow. The Poles counter-attacked, driving the Bolsheviks into the Dnieper in great confusion, 800 of them being drowned and about one hundred taken prisoner.

The Bolshevik concentration for the recapture of Kiev has been in progress for a month. Thirty-three divisions have been identified in the concentration through captured prisoners. There are other divisions which have not yet been identified. In February there were only seven divisions of Soviet troops along the entire front, but beginning with the spring offensive their numbers began to increase.

Red Cross Workers Safe

The last word from the American Red Cross workers was that they would evacuate Kiev with the Poles. The Americans had several automobiles and it is believed that the Warsaw headquarters that the Americans are safe even if the railroads have been cut. The Americans include Major Bruce Miller, of Fremont, Ohio, Major Alford Plankers and nine others.

Bomb Was Meant for Him

Enrico Caruso, who was due to appear for his last performance in Havana when the explosion occurred, denied to-day reports that the outrage was directed against him.

Five Billions Appropriated By Congress

Final Compilation of Representative Good Shows Cut of $1,474,000,000 in Estimates of Departments

980 Million for Interest

Total "War Hang-Over" Is $2,558,000,000, Including Aid Given Railroads

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Approximately $5,000,000,000 was appropriated by the Sixty-sixth Congress at its session ending June 5, according to a statement prepared to-day by Chairman Good, of the House Appropriations Committee, for the final issue of the "Congressional Record."

The exact amount as given by Mr. Good was $4,959,590,327. Of this, $4,379,395,270 is for government expenses in the fiscal year beginning July 1, and $486,495,048 is to meet deficiencies for the fiscal year ending with this month.

Chairman Good said Congress had reduced estimates of government departments for next year by $1,474,422,602, the total appropriations in only two measures exceeding the estimates. Congress added $94,120,000 to the Pension Bill, and $70,854,000 to the Postal Bill. The latter increase was to meet advances in pay to postal employees, while the pension increase was absorbed in part by increased pensions.

Thirteen Big Supply Bills

The total carried by the thirteen great annual supply bills, as given by Mr. Good, was $2,212,126,298, as follows:

Postoffice, $462,555,100; sundry civil, $437,106,809; naval, $433,279,574; army, $392,558,365; pension, $279,150,000; legislative, executive and judicial, $104,736,725; agriculture, $81,127,841; fortifications, $18,833,442; District of Columbia, $18,373,004; river and harbor, $12,400,000; Indian, $10,040,555; diplomatic and consular, $8,218,537; military academy, $2,122,212.

In addition to these bills, permanent appropriations annual expenditures authorized by Congress for stated periods—amounted to $1,692,788,080, of which $980,000,000 is for interest on the public debt and $260,800,000 for the sinking fund.

Miscellaneous appropriations included $725,000,000 by the Transportation Act, of which $300,000,000 is to be used as loans to the railroads for a period of fifteen years. Minor miscellaneous appropriations, with the deficiencies, brought the total appropriations to $4,859,590,327.

Mr. Good charged off $2,558,968,400 of the appropriations as a direct war "hangover," the sum including funds provided for the railroads, for the interest on the public debt, the payment to the sinking fund and $203,108,400 appropriated for re-education, hospital treatment, and insurance payments for veterans of the World War.

The army and navy together got $855,000,000 for the next fiscal year, leaving a total of $979,519,910 as the funds for all the other civil functions of the government during the year.

Former Carranza Aids Appeal From Detention

Mexico City Paper Asserts Gonzales Has Been Charged With "Grave Responsibilities"

MEXICO CITY, June 14.—General Francisco Murguía, former Minister of War; Colonel Juan Barragan, who was chief of staff to the late President Carranza; General Francisco Urquiza, former Under Secretary of War and Marine; and General Federico Montes, former Governor of Guanajuato, have appealed from the decree ordering their detention in connection with the death of Carranza and the disappearance of public funds.

The forces of General Estanislao Mendoza, stationed at Cuajimalpa, State of Mexico, have been disarmed as a result of complaints by the inhabitants that the soldiers had committed violence against their persons and property.

The "Heraldo" says to-day that General Alejandro Gonzales and Luis Felipe Dominguez have been charged with "grave responsibilities" in connection with their operations in the states of Chiapas and Tabasco, respectively. Gonzales is specifically charged with having commandeered Carranza forces which made forced loans and commandeered property and with having personally taken away 40,000 pesos of state funds.

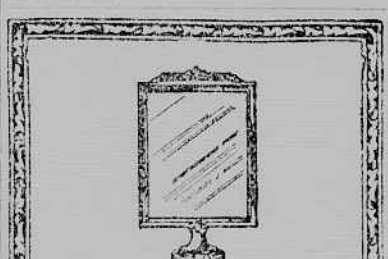

Indicted by its president to support General Obregon, the National Agrarian party was organized last night, the "Heraldo" says. Among the officers elected were Antonio Diaz Soria y Gama, president; General Obregon, Alvarado, Villareal, Calles and Gildardo Magana, honorary presidents.

Love Letters Read In Reply to Wife's Suit for Alimony

'You Will Make or Break Me, So Why Suffer Longer?' Says Note to Physician Laid to Mrs. O. R. Clark

Letters alleged to have been exchanged by his wife and a physician were produced by counsel for Orla R. Clark, an osteopath, yesterday in the Supreme Court at White Plains, when Marie L. Clark made application for $25 a week alimony pending trial of her action for separation. Her suit is based on alleged abandonment. She says that since her husband went to Reno, Neb., with their six-year-old son he has been giving her only $15 a week for the support of herself and a four-year-old daughter.

According to Edgar Ryder, Clark's attorney, Dr. Raphael Wren, of Ossining, is the man with whom Mrs. Clark exchanged letters. In September, 1919, Clark started an action for divorce, abandoning it several weeks later when he effected a reconciliation with his wife.

'Very Sad and Lonely'

A letter alleged to have been written by Mrs. Clark to Dr. Wren follows: "My dearest: I am so very, very sad and lonely and blue that I feel as though I could not stand it. If (meaning Clara, wife of Dr. Wren) said she would give you aid, get it, please. I want to see you soon, dear, and have you go to — with me. Dear, where are you to-day? I am so lonely for you. Are you thinking of me, I wonder? Do you miss me? Do you want me, but most of all do you love me?"

"There is no use talking. I feel as though my life was just — Oh, I don't know what. But if you do love me you will give me a chance to be happy and to make the most out of what years there are left to me, and the only happiness I will ever have is what you give me, dear. You will make or break me. There is no use of putting it off, dear. It has got to be, so why suffer longer? Why wait any more years? I keep watching out of the window in hopes I will see you pass. Dear, my dear, I love you, dear, and 'you know it.'"

"I Most Certainly Do"

Dr. Wren, Ryder said, was in Long Lake, N. Y., when this letter was sent, and he sent the following reply: "Hello, Jay! I do, dear, most certainly do, and more than ever. I have you with me in my cigarette case, and you know how often I smoke. I love you Jay! The end of a 'perfect hunt.' Nothing doing but yet! Have lots of time on my hands walking through the mountains, so every once in a while I stop, open my cigarette case, look and look and I almost — close it and walk."

Britain Asks About Bill

LONDON, June 14.—Premier Lloyd George has informed the House of Commons that the government has sent representations to the ambassador at Washington concerning the effect of the Jones bill on British mercantile marine.

The measure contains no anti-British legislation, but provides for a larger and more formidable American participation in future sea trade. Its effect upon the British mercantile marine would be to increase competition with American ships for cargoes in the open seas.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Jones shipping bill provides for the perpetuation of the American merchant marine with all the tonnage constructed during the war, to be devoted to commercial uses.
